

There was no quorum present for the Economic Development Advisory Committee meeting scheduled for Monday, October 13, 2025. Some Committee members were present, and they discussed agenda items informally with staff for approximately 45 minutes without taking any action. No members of the public were present.