Unfinished Business

New Business

7.1. FD - Probationary Reports

One firefighter came off of probation and he and another firefighter are currently in the paramedic program and doing well. There are two firefighters in the academy and are receiving decent reports. The department just hired one lateral transfer and he will be starting shift work next week. They will potentially be asking for an approval to hire letter in the near future.

7.2. PD - Probationary Reports

There are two officers in the FTO program and are progressing nicely. The department will be hiring one new officer who will go to the police academy in a couple of weeks. Command received notice of one officer retiring in January and will be looking for permission to hire a new officer in the near future.
