NEW BUSINESS

1. Downtown Parking Discussion

City Engineer Josie Esker spoke regarding each parking lot. The Committee express interest in waiting for the Union Mission to make a decision before making any decisions on the lot. There was consensus of the Committee to put the 200 Block on hold. Committee Member Cloyd expressed interest in lighting the 300 block better and to look into getting safety buttons that would call the police.

There was a consensus to do _____ at Fast Dragon.

Liz Waldschmidt with the Dance Academy requested more parking.

It was suggested to have code enforcement look behind Ashers Bar & Grill and to get a landscaping architect on board. It was also recommended to look into the cost of electric charging stations.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS TO COME BEFORE THE SUB COMMITTEE

ADJOURNMENT

No other business to come before the Committee, motion by Committee Member Orrick, seconded by Committee Member Cloyd to adjourn.

Chairman Nutter adjourned the meeting at 2:55 P.M.
