On roll call vote present, all voted Aye. Motion carried. It was included in the record that Mr. Sangalli's assurance that the premises would not open without furnishing the City with the amended insurance policy.

ANY OTHER BUSINESS
Liquor Commissioner John McCabe: Discussion on Gaming parlors. Has handouts the new liquor code for the City of Washington and City of Peoria. If you can read them both over and the next liquor commissioner meeting in January. Where we can have a discussion on this issue. Have been receiving a small number of businesses that are inquiring about the gaming parlors.

Liquor Commission Schwartz stated that last meeting minutes stated the Liquor Commission recommended that Liquor Commissioner McCabe ask for direction from Council. McCabe stated Council is waiting for the Liquor Commission to bring something back to them. Commission would like to see Council review the City of Washington and City of Peoria Video Gaming Code then come back to the Liquor Commission and give us direction Need more information from Council to guide us on what they would want. Liquor Commissioner McCabe will talk to Council at the next meeting and then bring back to the Liquor Commission when we meet in January.

Denny Mullins, from the public made a comment that the City of Peoria Ordinance states you have to wait 2 years and your business has to have 80% of food and beverage sales.

Liquor Commissioner McCabe entertained a motion to adjourn. Meeting adjourned at 4:17 P.M.

Respectfully submitted
Paula Gensel, Liquor Commission Secretary
